Amendment of the Mysore Municipal Regulation, 1906.

17) Under proviso (a) to section 59 of the Mysore Municipal Regulation, 1906, the properties &c., of His Highness the Maharaja are exempt from payment of any Municipal toll or taxes other than water rate or special sanitary cess.

18) It was ordered in the Municipal File No. 172-12 that the Mysore Municipal Regulation 1906, should be amended so as to extend the exemption to the properties of the Yuvaraja also.

19) A bill has accordingly been drafted and is approved by the Council. The Bill may therefore be approved by His Highness.

20) I am not certain whether this Bill comes under Section 12 of the Legislative Council Regulation. I am disposed to think that this cannot be a matter affecting the " ruling family of Mysore " and that it effects -- primarily the municipality. What was probably meant to be excluded was measures affecting the members of the Ruling Family directly such as in matters of status, succession &c. However in the absence of guiding precedents, I am diffident of the correctness of my view.

21) I submit herewith a Final Note by the First Member of Council on the Bill further to amend the Mysore Municipal Regulation 1906, so as to exempt the properties owned by His Highness the Yuvaraja from liability to pay Municipal taxes. The Bill was considered and approved in Council.

22) 2. The First and Second Members of Council are of opinion that the Bill does not fall under the proviso to section 12 of the Mysore Legislative Council Regulation and that it may therefore be placed before the Legislative Council.

23) 3. I am inclined to think that the Bill falls under the proviso referred to above as it affects His Highness the Yuvaraja and therefore should not be placed before the Legislative Council. If His Highness is pleased to accept this view, I solicit His Highness' gracious sanction, under section 14 of the Legislative Council Regulation, for the passing of the Bill into law, after obtaining the necessary sanction from the Government of India.
